Hundreds of Dorchester Residents Celebrate Community at Dudley Street Neighborhood Initiative's Multicultural Festival

(Dorchester, MA) Some 600 people enjoyed a wide range of activities at the recent Generations of Change Multicultural Festival hosted by the Dudley Street Neighborhood Initiative (DSNI). The day featured: inflatables and sports (3 on 3 tournament, flag football, soccer clinic), including a dunk tank- with DSNI staff, youth and neighbors; over 15 local vendors and info tables, including delicious local food; arts and crafts and children's activities; over 15 acts on the stage ranging from jazz to rap and everything in between including Zumba, line dancing, and dance workshops from Jose Mateo Ballet Theatre.
